WHO BENEFITS
FROM PA/LTC?

People with the following conditions, diseases, recovering from the following events, or seeking the following types of care can have an improved quality of life when living in a PA/LTC facility, or being cared for by professionals trained specifically in PA/LTC.

- Alzheimer's disease
- Arthritis
- Brain Injury
- Cancer
- Catheters
- COPD
- Congestive Heart Failure
- Delirium
- Dementia
- Depression
- Diabetes
- Difficulty/Inability to carry out activities of daily living (including bathing, dressing, eating)
- Dysphasia
- Falls/falls risk
- Feeding Tubes & other (colostomy, nephrostomy, etc.)
- Frailty
- Heart Failure

- Hospice Care
- Kidney Disease
- Infections (Pneumonia, Urinary Tract Infections, Skin & Soft Tissue, etc)
- Orthopedic Surgery Post--Operative Care
- Osteoporosis
- Pain
- Palliative Care
- Parkinson's Disease
- Rehabilitation following surgery, falls, etc
- Seizures
- Sleep Disorders
- Spinal Cord Injuries (Paraplegia, Quadriplegia)
- Stroke
- Weight Loss
- Wounds (surgical, pressure ulcers, etc)

www.paltc.org/we-are-paltc